DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 32-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 32, the preamble recites "In a communication system capable of operating using-----"; the expression "capable of" makes it unclear what the metes and bounds of claimed subject matter is since the term "capable of" makes the system's capability optional.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 2, 3, and 16-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Regarding claims 2, 16-25, "a computer readable medium" recited seem to include not only the computer readable storage medium, but also transmission mediums from interpreting the description at page 14, paragraphs [0056] and [0057]. To make the claims statutory, it is recommended to recite the preamble as "a computer readable storage medium containing computer executable instructions".

Further regarding claims 3 and 26-31, it is not clear what is being claimed; it cannot be determined whether this claim satisfies 101 requirements ; "a device" and "a storage device" need to be clarified to recite language acceptable to embody computer executable instructions, such as "a computer readable storage medium containing computer executable instructions----".

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1 and 4-15 are allowed.
5. Claims 32-34 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The Park patent, the Ikeda patent, and the Humpleman et al. patent are cited for further references.
